Winter Break Day Camps

6-10 Year Olds

Animal Wrappings

Monday, Dec 28th

With the arrival of winter comes not only chilly days but also new wrappings for our furry friends up north. Campers will discover how animals use and even change their camouflage during these colder months!

They Grow Up So Fast!

Tuesday, Dec 29th

Here at Zoo Knoxville, we have animals ranging from a few months in age to over 150 years; creating unique challenges that arise at different life stages. Come with us as we learn how our keepers provide the best care for all of our animals no matter their age!

A Cold Blast from the Past

Wednesday, Dec 30th

Rhinos, tigers, and bears, oh my! But what do they all have in common? They all have cousins who lived during the Ice Age! Join us as we journey back to the past and explore how these modern animals compare to their ancient counterparts.

Poison vs Venom

Thursday, Dec 31st

Watch out, there's a poisonous animal! Or is it venomous... Wait, what's the difference? Campers will explore the differences and similarities as well as some of the animals that employ these toxins.
